

2019 Winter-Spring Conversation Series

Community, Connection, & Place

Conversations about Identity and Belonging
in Medford and Beyond

March 3 - April 7, 2019

- Medford Conversations is a volunteer collaboration that arranges series of small group conversation circles on topics identified through community feedback.
- Each circle will meet four times before coming together in a closing event where everyone is invited to share, reflect, and build coalitions on important community projects.
- Participation is free, but space is limited. Registration opens on January 15th.
